Michelle Mowery has been a Lakewood resident for over 15 years. A mother of two (Sidney age 17 and Caleb age 10) Michelle also holds a full time position as an Executive Liability Underwriter for Travelers Insurance (13 years). Michelle started mosaic projects around the house and as a hobby about 4 years ago. Self taught and still learning, Michelle started by placing some pieces in Local Girl Gallery in Lakewood, and then participating in a number of the Lakewood Art Walk events beginning in 2007 and through 2009. Michelle moved her “hobby” to a studio space at the Templar Industrial Park / Screw Factory Artists studios in July of 2009 and has participated in two successful open studio events in the building. Michelle has contributed mosaic works for fundraising events including Lakewood Hospital’s fourth annual Starry Night Live Auction (2009); Friends of Madison Park (May 2010); and various events sponsored/hosted by Local Girl Gallery. Michelle also participated in the “Art of Recycling” Project for the City of Lakewood/Lakewood is Art in the spring of 2009.

Amy Sebold has been a Lakewood resident for 33 years. A mother of four (Lily 18; Noah 15; Edison 10 and Christopher 6), Amy also holds a full time teaching position for Elyria City Schools (Grade 5; Windsor Elementary School) and has been teaching for 20 years. Amy’s artistic talents include photography, printmaking, painting and jewelry design. She was the recipient of the Scholastic Key Award for a pen and ink drawing (1984) and received scholarship funds to attend painting classes at the Cleveland Institute of Art (summer 1984). Amy also has contributed to numerous fundraising/charitable events in the Lakewood community, including Junior Women’s Club of Lakewood Auctions (3 years); Lakewood Hospital Starry Night Live Auction 2008 and 2009; Lakewood Art Walk(s); Local Girl Gallery Auctions; and Clifton Beach Tea Dance Auction (2009).
