If, after filing a designation to register a campaign committee, a person chooses not to run, or files a designation for an office not on the ballot until the following year, election laws require that the individual file an annual campaign finance report. The report is due by the last business day in January. The Mid-Year report is due for ALL entities except those which may be required to file a Post-General Report. The report is due by the last business day in July. The same laws apply to any individual or organization that registers as Political Action Committee.*

*If, after filing a designation to register a campaign committee, a person chooses not to run, or files a designation for an office not on the ballot until the following year, election laws require that the individual file an annual campaign finance report. The report is due by the last business day in January. The Mid-Year report is due for ALL entities except those which may be required to file a Post-General Report. The report is due by the last business day in July. The same laws apply to any individual or organization that registers as Political Action Committee.
