Judicial candidates must file with the Board of Commissioners on Grievances and Discipline. You must file regardless of whether you spend money on your campaign. This form is not the same as the campaign finance report listing campaign contributions and expenditures that is filed with the Secretary of State or County Board of Elections.

WHY MUST I FILE?

- Filing is required by law – R.C. 102.02.
- Filing is part of the responsibility of choosing to hold or compete for public office or employment.
- Disclosure assists public servants to identify potential conflicts of interest.
- Disclosure allows citizens to become aware of potential conflicts of interest and increases confidence in government integrity and openness.
- Disclosure itself does not constitute compliance with the law. A filer may be prohibited from accepting a particular item even if he or she discloses the source as required.

HOW OFTEN MUST I FILE? WHAT TIME PERIOD IS COVERED?

- Financial disclosure is an annual requirement.
- No person is required to file more than one Financial Disclosure Statement for any one calendar year.
- Each FDS contains a complete calendar year of financial information.
  - Example: A candidate in 2010 is required to file a statement for 2009—the last year with a complete calendar year of financial information—even though he or she was not a candidate in 2009.
- A person who leaves a filing position must file a statement in the year after leaving the position and to disclose financial information for his or her last year of public service.
  - Example: A state employee who retires in June 2009 must file a statement in 2010 disclosing financial information for the complete 2009 calendar year.
